The world can be a hard place in which to live, grow, and learn. Many people get into trouble with their wrong-thinking patterns and attitudes. They fail because they are prisoners of their own rigid ideas. The question before any of us is: What do we think? What holds us back in our personal development? Here are some basic beliefs and patterns that keep us from realizing our potential. When we break those beliefs and patterns, we can move toward achieving our goals, getting what we want, and doing the most good in the world. No one is "fixed." Everyone is growing, learning, changing. We can keep growing and growing until we are free from the constraints of outdated and useless thinking. At the same time we can learn from the best in the world. We are all human. We have the ability to think. We can live our own life or someone else's. We can do great things or great harm. We can have excellent relationships or horrible ones. We can be happy or miserable. The answer to almost every question is simple. It is right there in front of us. We have to look at it. "Este libro sirve para los que quieren hacer el trabajo, para los que quieren invertir en hacerlo. Los que se meten en este libro sabr?n c?mo hacer su trabajo y, lo m?s importante, c?mo hacerlo mejor." Sr. Ohno "Libertad de pensar, especialmente la libertad de pensar de otra manera" -Shunryu Suzuki "Cuando intento comprender qu? es de verdad bueno, se me suben a la cabeza aquellos chicos de por aqu?. Cuando leo libros de por otra manera, me encuentro con un ?rea que no conocia, y que creo que hasta ahora desconocia. A los que no deber?n bastar con leer libros como este, porque si no est?n. a la hora de realizar esto ?ltimo, no deber?an dejar pasar hasta el a?o de la vida." Sr. Ohno "Si en lugar de ocuparse de la buena comp
